- Terrell Group Management, LLC; and

(collectively the “Terrell Parties”).

On behalf of the Receivership Entity, the Receiver asked this Court: (i) to determine that the terms of the Claims Bar Settlement Agreements are fair, reasonable, and adequate for the Receivership Entity; and (ii) to determine that a limited judgment should be entered as to the Professional Firms and the Terrell Parties that enjoins the prosecution of any Contribution Claims (as defined herein) by or against any of the Professional Firms or Terrell Parties.

The Court having considered all papers filed and proceedings held herein and otherwise being fully informed,

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that:

1. This limited judgment (the “Limited Judgment”) shall be final and immediately appealable pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b). The Court expressly finds that there is no just reason for delay of its entry and directs the Clerk of the Court to enter this Limited Judgment pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(b).

e. “Court” means the U.S. District Court for the District of Oregon in which the SEC Enforcement Action titled SEC v. Aequitas Management, LLC, et al., Case No. 3:16-CV-00438-JR, is pending.

i. “Individual Defendants” means Robert J. Jesenik, Brian A. Oliver, and N. Scott Gillis, each of whom is a defendant in the SEC Enforcement Action.

j. “Receiver” means Ronald F. Greenspan, the Court-appointed Receiver for the Receivership Entity, pursuant to the Receivership Order.

k. “Receivership Entity” means, individually and collectively, Aequis Management, LLC, Aequis Holdings, LLC, Aequis Commercial Finance, LLC, Aequis Capital Management, Inc., Aequis Investment Management, LLC and each of their 43 subsidiaries and/or majority-owned affiliates, as set forth on Exhibit A to the Receivership Order.

m. “Registered Investment Adviser” means any person or firm (including such person or firm’s employees, agents, or representatives) registered as such with either the Securities and Exchange Commission or a state securities regulator, who provided advice, recommendations, reports, or analyses regarding Aequis Securities to any Aequis Investor, in exchange for any form of compensation.

n. “SEC Enforcement Action” means the lawsuit titled SEC v. Aequis Management, LLC, et al., Case No. 3:16-CV-00438-JR, currently pending in the U.S. District Court for the District of Oregon.

3. This Court has jurisdiction to enter this Limited Judgment. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the SEC Civil Enforcement Action and subject matter jurisdiction over the settlements memorialized in the Claims Bar Settlement Agreements, including for, but not limited to, the reason that the settlements involve the disposition of assets of the Receivership Entity. The Court has personal jurisdiction not only over the persons who have appeared in the SEC Civil Enforcement Action but also over any and all Former Aequis-Related Parties, for reasons including, but not limited to, the connection of Former Aequis-Related Parties to entities included within the Receivership Entity, which are Oregon-based, and/or the connection of Former Aequis-Related Parties to the issuance and/or sale and/or solicitation of the sale of Aequis Securities by Oregon-based entities.

4. The Court finds that this Limited Judgment is procedurally fair to all Former Aequis-Related Parties listed in Exhibit 1 hereto, regardless of whether they have appeared in the SEC Enforcement Action. The Motion for Order (1) Approving Compromises of Claims,

(2) Approving and Authorizing Performance of Settlement Agreements, (3) Entering Claims Bars, and (4) Removing a Receivership Entity and an Extended Entity (“Approval Motion” Dkt. 852), the Settlement Agreements, and the Proposed Limited Judgment were mailed to Former Aequis-Related Parties listed on Exhibit 1, or their attorneys where applicable. A full and fair opportunity to be heard was accorded to all Former Aequis-Related Parties with respect to the Receiver’s Motion for Approval, which included approval of the Claims Bar Settlement Agreements. Thus, it is hereby determined that the Professional Firms, the Terrell Parties and all Former Aequis-Related Parties listed on Exhibit 1 hereto are bound by this Limited Judgment.

5. The Claims Bar Settlement Agreements were approved in all respects, upon entry of this Court’s Order (Dkt. 866), and shall be consummated in accordance with their terms and provisions.

6. The Court finds that this Limited Judgment is substantively fair to all Former Aequis-Related Parties in that: (a) they receive reciprocal injunctions against Contribution Claims being brought against them by any of the Professional Firms or Terrell Parties; and (b) in the event any Former Aequis-Related Party might otherwise have a Contribution Claim against one or more of the Professional Firms or the Terrell Parties arising from a claim against the Former Aequis-Related Party by any Aequis Investor, that Former Aequis-Related Party will receive a reduction of any judgment against him/her/it in at least the amount that the Aequis Investor received or is entitled to receive from any settlement with the corresponding Professional Firm or Terrell Party.

7. Each and every Former Aequis-Related Party and all persons in active concert with them are hereby permanently enjoined from asserting any Contribution Claims against any of the Professional Firms, including any of their past or present partners, owners, employees, insurers, successors or assigns, or any of the Terrell Parties in any proceeding whatsoever.

8. The Professional Firms, including any of their past or present partners, owners, employees, insurers, successors or assigns, and the Terrell Parties as well as all persons in active concert with them are hereby permanently enjoined from asserting any Contribution Claims against any Former Aequis-Related Party, any Professional Firm or any Terrell Party, in any proceeding whatsoever.

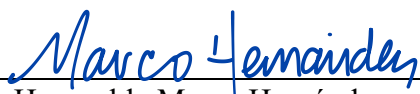

9. If an Aequis Investor obtains a judgment against any Former Aequis-Related Party, that judgment shall be reduced by an amount at least equal to the amount of any settlement payment the Aequis Investor received or is entitled to receive from the corresponding Professional Firm or Terrell Party.

10. Each of the Receivership Entity, Professional Firms, Terrell Parties and Former Aequis-Related Parties shall bear their own costs and attorneys' fees.

11. Without affecting the finality of this Limited Judgment in any way, this Court hereby retains continuing jurisdiction over: (a) implementation and enforcement of the Claims Bar Settlement Agreements; (b) enforcing and administering this Limited Judgment, including the injunctions contained herein; and (c) other matters related or ancillary to the foregoing.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
